No longer "almost there"... we need editors!

One of our translators finished his first assignment and decided to take up Shounen Y. We're going to relaunch this series from the first chapter, so we need motivated people to complete the team: a proofreader, a cleaner, a typesetter and a redrawer. The translator isn't incredibly fast, and the series is finished in Japan, so we'll do it at a laid-back pace (something like a chapter a month, unless he speeds up in producing script!). We also need you to be willing to do the first three chapters even though a speedscanner has already done them (no redrawing, no proofreading, sketchy translation).

We also need typesetters for Nanba MG and Impossibility Defence.

Our cleaning test is at: <https://goo.gl/KTzt> (Shounen Y comes in webraws, so we'll be very lenient on this test. If you know how to remove text from bubbles and split a double page into two, we'll pass you. So you can take this test and join us even if you don't know how to level, dust or use filters, but if you do know all those things, you'll be able to take up other projects in the future if you want. If you fail at those things, you'll only be allowed to clean webraws for us.)

Our typesetting test is at: <https://goo.gl/wv7KdU>

The redrawing test is at <https://goo.gl/qfmsv6>. (You don't need to do the pages marked DIFFICULT. Shounen Y is a little too hard for the general test, but not so hard that you need to do our full test in its entirety.)

For proofreading, please register in our forums at deathollscans.net and send me (Wrath) a PM. I'll put you in contact with the Head Proofreader, PerrySageChuck, who will test your skills with a real script.

We are also inviting translators for Psychic Odagiri Ryosuke's Lies. Our test is at <https://imgur.com/THUEuuk.jpg>.

For all positions except translation, applicants should bundle their tests in a compressed file (ZIP, RAR, 7Z, whatever), upload it to a cloud service and either post the link in our home page (<http://bit.ly/2sC4o0K>) or send it to me as a PM (Wrath at d.wrath@deathollscans.net). We expect them to be able to do a chapter in a week (it doesn't necessarily mean you'll be required to do so - it will depend on the project, though we expect proofreaders to be faster than the other team members). We've had compatibility issues with CIMP files before, so we require applicants to use Photoshop. For translators, just send me the link to the script, no need to compress it.

People with experience who want to bypass the test on account of having samples of past work will have the test replaced by an actual chapter of the series they want to work on. This still means it is a test: if you fail, the chapter edited by you won't be used. It's high risk (having an entire chapter discarded because you didn't pass), high gain (working on something that will actually be used instead of a test). People without experience can't take that route, at least in principle. (If you contact me and I am in a good mood, I may let you have a try at your own risk, but don't count on it.)

Prospective translators are advised to cultivate patience in the beginning. New projects in a small group like ours start without a full edition staff. If you join, you'll be asked to produce at most a couple of scripts to produce bait chapters to fish for editors. Releases may take a while to become regular as we assemble a dedicated team.
